

20th April 2026

“Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body.”

Dear Parents,

Jai Hind!

On the occasion of World Book Day – 23rd April 2026, the School is organising an engaging activity titled ‘Character Chronicles’ for the students of Grades III to V.

Students are required to bring their favourite storybook and speak a few lines about their favourite character, sharing why they admire or connect with them. As part of the creative activity, students will colour and present their chosen character in class.

Materials Required:

- A favourite storybook
- A black-and-white clip art print out of the favourite character (neatly pasted on the A4 sheet and properly labelled with Student name, Grade and Section)
- Colours of their choice (crayons/colour pencils/sketch pens)

We encourage all students to participate enthusiastically and celebrate the joy of reading through expression and creativity!

Warm regards,

Mayor World School
