Greetings of the Day!

This message is to reiterate that use of mobile phones by students is strictly prohibited inside the campus during School hours.

Students of Grade XI and XII are permitted to carry mobiles but they need to be submitted at the School gate.

Any mobile confiscated during school hours inside the campus will not be returned to the students.

Students are also reminded not to carry any objectionable items in their bags to avoid unpleasantness in School. Violation of this rule will be considered as a grave offence and may lead to serious consequences.
