Corbett: Into the wild we go, where nature whispers and adventure begins.

Dear Parents,
Jai Hind!

“Travel turns experiences into wisdom.”

After the Final Examinations, the School is organising an experiential learning trip to Corbett for students of Grades VI to VIII. This trip will give children a chance to learn to live in the forest, use water to transport your self and track animals by their pugmarks.

The journey is designed to help students become more confident, responsible, and independent while enjoying safe, guided adventures with their teachers and friends. Along with learning, the children will create joyful memories and develop a love for exploring the world around them.

About Rocksport Experiential Holiday

During the course of the programme, students will perform adventure activities, explore the local towns, converse with the communities and learn new skills. The programme also offers a unique experience of being one with nature as students learn about flora and fauna while appreciating the calmness and beauty of nature. A Day at Camp

At Rocksport Experiential Holidays, experiences are designed in accordance with AYURVEDIC DOSHAS to enhance self-discipline and promote an active lifestyle. The day is divided into five phases that align students with their natural body clock and help them master the art of being their most productive selves.

6:00 – 9:00 AM Mastering the art of Waking up early

This is the time of the day when rigorous exercise, breathing and meditation are most beneficial. Staying active all day and eating healthy keeps students energised throughout the day.

9:00 – 2:00 PM Mastering the art of Hard-work

The best time of the day to get things done and complete the most difficult tasks. The hardest challenges and the most important tasks can be easily completed during this phase.

2:00 – 5:00 PM Mastering the art of Creative thinking

This time of the day is most suited to do creative thinking, problem solving or other activities that require brain power. Doing mental activities can reap wonderful rewards at these hours.

5:00 – 7:00 PM Mastering the art of Introspection

The most ideal thing before the day ends is to sit back and reflect. Sitting in solace, introspecting or writing a journal allows learning and helps prepare for another productive day.

7:00 – 10:00 PM Mastering the art of De-Stressing

These last few hours of the day should be spent doing calming activities with friends and family. Activities such as singing and sharing stories will, promote bonding amongst peers and releases stress
