

20th April 2026

Dear Parents,
Jai Hind!

To celebrate World Book Day on 23rd April 2026, we are going to organise a creative and empathetic writing activity, for the students of Grade VII, titled: "Letter to a Character."

This exercise aims to nurture creativity, compassion, and reflective thinking in our learners, while strengthening their writing skill.

In this activity, students will write a short letter to a character from a book they have read. They will:

- Begin with a warm greeting.
- Mention the situation or problem the character experienced in the story.
- Offer kind and thoughtful advice on how the character could handle the conflict or challenge.
- End with a closing line full of imagination and empathy.

Materials Required:

- A4 Sheet
- Pen/Pencil
- Colours or decorative stationery (optional, for creative presentation)

We look forward to the imaginative letters our students will craft, guiding characters with empathy and wisdom.

Warm regards,
Mayor World School
