20th April 2026

Dear Parents

Jai Hind!

“A book is a dream that you hold in your hands.”

In celebration of World Book Day – 23rd April 2026, the School is delighted to organise an engaging activity titled ‘Character Parade’ for the students of Grade II, with the aim of fostering a love for reading among them. Students will participate in this fun-filled activity by dressing up as their favourite character from a book and speaking a few lines about the character, sharing why they like it.

Kindly note the following guidelines:

1. Costumes and props should be simple, decent, and presentable.
2. Students are encouraged to focus more on their expression and confidence rather than elaborate outfits.
3. Each participant must prepare 2–3 lines about their chosen character.
4. Students are also required to carry a set of school uniform along with them.
5. Kindly ensure that the costume is comfortable and easy to manage for the child.

We look forward to enthusiastic participation and a joyful celebration of the wonderful world of books!

Warm regards

Mayor World School
